CASH MUSIC AND PIANO STORE

HORACE WATERS No 333 Broadway, New York. OPPOSITION TO THE COMBINATION.

MUSIC AT GREATLY REDUCED RATES. NOTWITHSTANDING THE COMBIhination of Music Dealers to keep up the prices of non-copyright music against the interests of Native Composers, and their refusal to extend to Mr. Waters the courtesies of the trade, he is making immense sales—having abundant evidence that he has public countenance and sup-port in his opposition to the Great Monopoly, and in his efforts to aid Native Talent, and adopt the National Currency. His stock of American and European Music is immense, and the catalogue of his own publications is one of the largest and best selected in the United States. He has also made a Great Reduction in the Prices of Pianos Melodeons, and Musical Instruments of all kinds Superior toned 64 Octave Pianos for $175, $200 and $2:5, interior of as good quality, and instruments as strong and as durable as those which cost $500. Planos of every variety of style and price up to $1,000, comprising those of Ten different manufactories; among them the celebrated modern improved Horace Waters' Planos, and the first premium Æolean Pianos of T. Gilbert & Co's, make (owners of the Æolean Patent.) Second-hand Pianos at great bargains. Prices from $40 to $150. Melodeons from five different manufactories, including the well-known S. D. & H. NEW YORK, May 8, 18t. . Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

Superintendent

states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government, Dec 7-3taw2wif agreeing to supply the government with five milhon of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January, A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of four thousand dollars. The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, signed the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent.

on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from ants, or their representatives, and the defendants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hundred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representapaid to the complainant or his legal representatives, and such other and further decree as to this court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N. Comstock, named read with great interest by all who have devoted in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the pro-

things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint against the defendants, shall be taken for confessed against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. and healthful sustenance of the body.

Strictly speaking, Heckers' Farina is neither stringent nor laxative, but restorative, strengening the digestive and absorbent system. In disordered bowels, diarrhae, dysentery, and even in cases of cholera, when food is deemed admissible by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively used in hospitals and private practice. The preservation of health or the prevention of sickness is at least as important as the curing of disease. People in health should therefore use Heckers' Farina freely, as common food, to preserve the inestinable blessing.

'This invaluable Cordial is extracted from Herbs and nvaluable Cordial is extracted round in the same of experience, by the most skillful physicians, to be possessed of qualities the most beneficial in the diseases for which it is recommended; and hence whilst it is presented to the public as an effica-cious remedy, it is also known to be of that char-acter on which reliance may be placed as to its safety. In cases of Impotency, Harmorrhages Disordered Sterility, Menstruation, or Suppression

Debility arising from any cause, such as weakness from sickness, where the patient has been confined to bed for some time, for femaleafter confinement, abortion or miscarriage, the cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects or in loss of muscular energy, irritability, physical prostration, seminal weakness, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, sluggishness, decay of the procreative functions, nervousness, &c., where a rosic medicine is required, it will be found equal f not superior to any compound ever used.

To Females.—Henry's Invigorating Cordial is

ne of the most invaluable medicines in the many complaints to which females are subject. sists nature to brace the whole system, check excesses, and creates renewed health and happiness Less suffering, disease, and unhappiness among ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this cordial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to are restored by the use of a bottle or two to bloom and to vigor.

Young Men.—That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence of man, and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorance of the danger to which they subject themselves causes Nervous Debility, weakness of the system and premature decay. suffering, misled as to the cause or source of dis ease. To those, then, who by excess have crought on themselves premature impotency, involuneminal emissions, weakness and shrivelling o the genital organs, nervous affection, or any other consequences of unrestricted induigence of the senenal passions, occasioning the necessity of reouncing the felicities of Marriage, lessening both mental and bodhly espacity, hold! Henry's invigorating Cordial, a medicine that is purely vegetable, will aid nature to restore those important functions to a healthy state, and will preve of service to you. It possesses rare virtues, is a general remover of disease, and strengthener of the system.

As a Tonic Medicine, it is unsurpassed. We do not place this cordial on a footing with quack medicines, and, as is customary, append a long list of recommendations, certificates, &c., beginning with "Hear what the Preacher says," and such like; it is not necessary, for "Henry's Invigorating Cordial" only needs a trial to prove that it will accomplish all we say.
